UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,	)	Case No: 2:11-CR-110-RLH
Plaintiff,	)	ORDER RE MEDICAL
	)	TESTING, EVALUATION AND RESULTS
vs.	)
DE RONG SHANG,	)	Sentencing Date: 10/23/12
	)	Time: 9:00 a.m.
Defendant.	)	HON. ROGER L. HUNT

TO: ANTHONY P. BROOKLIER, ATTORNEY FOR DEFENDANT DE RONG SHANG, NEVADA SOUTHERN DETENTION CENTER, WEST VALLEY IMAGING, LABORATORY MEDICAL CONSULTANTS AND RANDALL S. LOMAX, D.O.:

It has come to the Court's attention that an issue exists as to the extent and nature of the medical condition of defendant, De Rong Shang. The Court has received information indicating that a medical procedure commonly referred to as a "fine needle aspiration biopsy" ("FNAB") conducted on September 19, 2012, resulted in the diagnostic material that was extracted as being insufficient for a specific diagnosis.

1 The sentencing date in this matter is now scheduled for October 23, 2012, at 9:00 a.m. No
2 further extension of this sentencing date will be allowed.

3 Therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that any retesting, biopsy or additional studies
4 shall be expedited in order that defendant Shang's medical condition will be known to the Court
5 prior to the scheduled sentencing date of October 23, 2012.
